

Crypto Strategy Report - September 2019 Coins

These are the coins that look set to break out in September. Remember that BCH is likely to make a solid move up against BTC as well so there are two lists below, one against BTC and one against BCH.

***Please note that all of these coins (except for GRIN) are coins that I would consider good long term holds even if they do not spike in September.

Coins I expect to perform well against BTC (Bitcoin) in September

THESE ARE THE COINS I EXPECT TO SEE BIG SPIKES FROM when BTC moves Down after a SPIKE. I expect them to do well against both BTC and BCH, although the timing of near term BCH moves is unclear. BCH is being held down for another year and won't make its MASSIVE moves until then. HOWEVER - I would hold onto it because it will move up when BTC moves up and make bigger moves than BTC.

DGB - this is also a long term hold coin, so you may want to take a percentage of your DGB and trade it on the peaks that happen in Sept. See my video inside of Patreon for my ideas on how to best do this while protecting your holdings AND taking some profit.

RDD (Redcoin) - This one could make some very, very good gains against BTC in September. But they will be spikes, plan to sell those spikes.

ETN (Electronium) - This is actually a good coin to hold long term but will likely make some very good gains in September against BTC.

THESE ARE THE OTHER COINS I EXPECT WILL SPIKE - the AMOUNT and TIME is unclear, some may have bigger spikes and some may be smaller. Consider these higher risk coins.

ETC (Ethereum Classic)

DOGE (Dogecoin)

ADA (Cardano)

XLM (Stellar)

BTT (BitTorrent)

GAS (Theta Gas)

GRIN (Grin Coin) - I know nothing about this coin, consider it very high risk
